Poetry Competition and Cleanliness Drive organized at GDC Dharmari under Mera Pehla Vote Desh K liye and Nasha Mukht Bharat Abhiyan

Dharmari, March, 28: Two activities were organized by NSS Unit of GDC Dharmari as a part of NSS Winter Special Camp 2023-24.

First, A captivating poetry competition on elections and drug abuse took place at GDC Dharmari, organized by NSS students as part of their winter camp activities. The event showcased the creativity and concern of the students, highlighting pressing societal issues through eloquent verses. With themes ranging from the essence of democracy in elections to the menace of drug abuse, the competition served as a platform for meaningful expression and awareness. The students' insightful poems not only captivated the audience but also sparked important conversations, emphasizing the role of youth in addressing these critical issues.

Second, the NSS volunteers and students at GDC Dharmari participated in a successful sanitation drive during their winter camp, demonstrating their commitment to community service and environmental stewardship. Under the guidance of faculty members and NSS coordinators, students actively participated in cleaning various areas within the campus and neighboring localities, emphasizing the importance of cleanliness and hygiene. The initiative received positive feedback from local residents and authorities, highlighting the significant impact of youth-driven efforts on public health and environmental sustainability. The activities were organized under the supervision of NSS Program Officer, Prof. Ajay Kumar and Prof. Vinod Kumar Sharma.
