PRESS RELEASE

Outdoor Activities in connection with NMBA

Government Degree College Dharmari under the supervision of Principal Dr. Rajesh Kant organized a energetic cultural program under the nationwide campaign “Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyan” with the motive of spreading awareness about the ill effects of drug abuse and promoting a healthy drug-free society among the youth .

The program was conducted at the picnic spot in Gool and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and faculty as well. Students actively participated in various cultural activities such as dancing, singing and poetry, each performance carried a strong message against drug addiction and showcased the devastating impact of substances abuse on individuals families and society.

Moreover an Inter-house cricket match was also held between two teams one was headed by Dr. Safer Ahmad Bhat and another by Dr Aijaz Ahmad Tantary. This activity entrust a good message to the players of both the teams, that games like cricket are the most illuminated weapons for disintegrating the dreadful disease like drugs. The involvement in such activities brings happiness in individuals life and society as well.
