Government Degree College, Dharmari organized a door-to-door awareness drive under ‘Nasha Mukht Abhiyan’

Government Degree College Dharmari organized a door-to-door awareness drive under the ‘Nasha Mukht Abhiyan’ in collaboration with NCORD & NSS Unit of the College. The event was organized as a part of the 100 Days Action Programme against drug abuse. The initiative aimed to create awareness among parents, especially women of the local areas, about the early signs of drug addiction and the growing menace of substance abuse in society.

The awareness drive was conducted under the leadership and guidance of Principal Dr. Rajesh Kant. The team comprised teaching and non-teaching staff members including Dr. Shabeer Ahmad, Dr. Safeer Ahmad, Dr. Saleem Ahmed, Prof. Ajay Kumar, Prof. Mohinder Singh and Dr. Aijaz. During the campaign, the team visited different households and interacted with local residents specially women, sensitizing them about preventive measures, timely identification of addiction symptoms, rehabilitation measures and the importance of collective community efforts in building a drug-free society.
